

North American Beaver

Did you know? Beavers are excellent swimmers. They have webbed hind feet and a tail that is shaped like a canoe paddle. They are found throughout the Grand River watershed. Baby beavers are called kits. They are born from April to June.

