THANK YOU TO THE DONORS WHO HELPED BUILD THE TRAILS.

These recreational trails are free to enjoy, but the cost to acquire and build the trails was substantial. The funds were provided by generous donations from the following corporations, individuals and like-minded foundations.

HELPED BUILD THE TRAILS

THANK YOU TO THE DONORS WHO HELPED BUILD THE TRAILS

TRAIL SUPPORTERS

- Grand Valley Trails Association
- Freeman Foundation
- Peter Etril Snyder Galleries
- Gordon Cockshutt Foundation
- Cloverleaf Charitable Foundation
- Ron Clark
- CIBC (Halton/Wentworth District)
- H.G. Bertram Foundation
- Ancaster High & Vocational
- The McLean Foundation
- Green Life Proteins
- Dofasco Inc.
- Ciba-Geigy
- Brantford Jaycees
- Redland Quarries
- Province of Ontario
- Canadian General-Tower
- Union Gas
- TransCanada Pipeline
- Samuel W. Stedman Foundation
- Royal Bank of Canada Charitable Foundation
- Polymer Technologies
- Ontario Heritage Foundation
- Bank of Nova Scotia
- George C. Metcalf Charitable Foundation
- The R. Samuel McLaughlin Malloch Foundation
- The W. Garfield Weston Foundation
- TD Canada Trust - Friends of the Environment Foundation
- Peter & Harvey Sims
- Ken Murray
- Trans Canada Trail Foundation
- TCG Materials
- SC Johnson and Son, Limited
- View to the pedestrian bridge over the Grand River in Brantford.

ABOUT THE TRAILS

- Three recreational trails are surfaced with a dense, hard-surface, so some sections through the City of Brantford are paved.
- Trail signs or maps may be outdated or out of date.
- Experts advise caution as conditions may be different than what they were when the trail was completed.
- Most of the trails are accessible for wheelchair users, except in a couple locations where trail diversions may be required.
- The City of Brantford, or cross busy roads and private
- Some sections of the trail use roadways within the City of Brantford, so cross busy roads and private
- The trails must be used at your own risk. Note that trail conditions can change over time and depending on weather.

The TRAILS

- Explore the

HAMILTON - BRANTFORD - CAMBRIDGE

- CAMBRIDGE

- BRANTFORD

- HAMILTON

- Trail Map

- This map may not be reproduced or altered in any way. This map is for illustrative purposes only.

Copyright © Grand River Conservation Authority, 2020.

It wasn’t originally planned to build a continuous recreational trail from Hamilton to Cambridge. The trail system was developed by linking four separate trail project initiatives:

EXPLORING THE TRAILS

Here are some of the sights and features to enjoy along the way:

Kilometer distances are marked at many locations, and trailhead parking areas kiosks contain maps of the trail section you’re about to travel. The map on reverse shows the locations of the following features.

PERMITTED USE OF THE TRAILS:

No open fires or camping are permitted.

Trail Centre.

Dundas Valley to Brantford Rail Trail from Hwy 403 east to the Dundas Valley wheelchairs in most sections.

are provided. The trails are accessible by southern Ontario. The route is best bicycling and hiking opportunities in multi-use interurban recreational trail forming Canada’s first fully developed, entirely off-road interurban trail.

The Hamilton to Brantford Rail Trail CAMBRIDGE TO PARIS RAIL TRAIL:

The Paris to Brantford Rail Trail is part of the

Cambridge to Paris Rail Trail

The Hamilton to Brantford Rail Trail is part of the

Hamilton To Brantford Rail Trail

The Hamilton to Brantford Rail Trail connects to nearby sites over the 32 km route of the abandoned

Erie & Northern Railway, and was one of the first abandoned railways to be converted for recreational use in southern Ontario. Running through unique Carolinian forest and along the scenic Grand River, the 14 km trail is owned and maintained by the Grand River Conservation Authority through funding by donors to the Grand River Conservation Foundation.

It wasn’t originally planned to build a continuous recreational trail from Hamilton to Cambridge. The trail system was developed by linking four separate trail project initiatives:

EXPLORING THE TRAILS

Here are some of the sights and features to enjoy along the way:

Kilometer distances are marked at many locations, and trailhead parking areas kiosks contain maps of the trail section you’re about to travel. The map on reverse shows the locations of the following features.

PERMITTED USE OF THE TRAILS:

No open fires or camping are permitted.

Trail Centre.

Dundas Valley to Brantford Rail Trail from Hwy 403 east to the Dundas Valley wheelchairs in most sections.

are provided. The trails are accessible by southern Ontario. The route is best bicycling and hiking opportunities in multi-use interurban recreational trail forming Canada’s first fully developed, entirely off-road interurban trail.

The Hamilton to Brantford Rail Trail CAMBRIDGE TO PARIS RAIL TRAIL:

The Paris to Brantford Rail Trail is part of the

Cambridge to Paris Rail Trail

The Hamilton to Brantford Rail Trail is part of the

Hamilton To Brantford Rail Trail

The Hamilton to Brantford Rail Trail connects to nearby sites over the 32 km route of the abandoned

Erie & Northern Railway, and was one of the first abandoned railways to be converted for recreational use in southern Ontario. Running through unique Carolinian forest and along the scenic Grand River, the 14 km trail is owned and maintained by the Grand River Conservation Authority through funding by donors to the Grand River Conservation Foundation.

It wasn’t originally planned to build a continuous recreational trail from Hamilton to Cambridge. The trail system was developed by linking four separate trail project initiatives:

EXPLORING THE TRAILS

Here are some of the sights and features to enjoy along the way:

Kilometer distances are marked at many locations, and trailhead parking areas kiosks contain maps of the trail section you’re about to travel. The map on reverse shows the locations of the following features.

PERMITTED USE OF THE TRAILS:

No open fires or camping are permitted.

Trail Centre.